

YEAR 1 SPRING TERM VEHICLE

We are Historians!

Geography/history objectives- purple
Dt/Art objective- green

Week 12
Prepare for a fossil museum. Design and create fossils based on trip and findings.

Week 11
Trip to Charmouth

Week 10
Know what life was like in Victorian times.
Compare the Victorian times to today.

Week 6
Give reasons and results for the changes after the Great Fire of London (introduce term monarchy).
Create mixing different blues to create tone, colour and texture.

Week 7
Know who Mary Anning and what made her a significant person.
Learn different mark making techniques.

Week 5
Describe the Great Fire of London using structured writing to help.
Select and combine information from different sources.
Explore and compare other artists' paintings of seas, eg: Constable. Tone, colour, texture.

Week 2
Show knowledge and understanding of aspects of the past beyond living memory- identifying characteristic features of a period.

Week 3
Show understanding that the past has been interpreted in different ways.
Adapt design so bread based on parent feedback.

Week 4
Begin to realise that there are reasons why people acted as they did.
Explore and discuss a painting by Caspar Friedrich.

Week 1
Taste test different types of bread and identify what makes it appealing.
Design a flavour of bread for a recipe.
Make a loaf of bread.
Feedback sheet home to parents for taste testing.

Week 9
Create a timeline of Mary Anning's life.
To paint and evaluate own stormy sea scape based on Lyme Regis.

Week 8
Ask questions to Mary Anning.
To plan and experiment creating a sea painting inspired by Friedrich.

Hook Day!
Come in dressed as bakers for The Great Fire of London
Monday 5th January

Vehicle Destination!
We are Historians!
We will make our own dinosaur fossils out of clay to showcase for year 2 pupils to evaluate.

Key Vocabulary

painting tone texture brush colour pattern drawing outline traditional past London spread impression monarchy

Key Texts

SIGNIFICANT INDIVIDUALS

Samuel Pepys Mary Anning Thomas Farriner

Visits out / visitors in Linking to Mary Anning's memorable work, the children will go on a fossil finding trip to Charmouth. This trip will take place Monday 18th March.